Established in 2008, 24th Street Tavern has brought a renewal of the classic American tavern into the historic town of Oxford. Offering exceptional service, a friendly atmosphere and fantastic food. We understand that the loyalty of our customers is what keeps the American tavern alive. This is the single most important thing that sets 24th Street apart from the others. Our dedication to our customers allow us to provide a gathering place for all people. Doctors, lawyers, contractors, students, plumbers and even politicians gather together under one roof to unwind from a hard days work. The word "regulars" is the life and blood of this tavern. We take pride in knowing what you drink when you walk in the door and always offering a stool at the bar for a new customer. Your Team - Your Town - Your Tavern.
